

THE BUD – VILLA SAN

Volume 12 issue 31 April/May/June 2012

Sunny San

GUESTS at Villa San are spoiled for choice when it comes to ways to relax - reflecting the owners' artistic and spiritual leanings.

The spacious grounds offer freedom and flexibility for both families and groups of friends, with hammocks and sun loungers arranged around the 25 x five-metre pool, and a pool pavilion seating up to 15 people. Inside, as well as the living and dining spaces, there are two well-equipped entertainment rooms - one is part of the two-bedroom master suite; the other adjacent to the informal dining room, a gym and a children's playroom. The villa showcases some exquisite art and handicrafts from China, Ghana and Indonesia. Villa San comprises six large bedrooms - three doubles and three twins. French doors from all the bedroom pavilions look out over tranquil gardens, only steps away from the long sloping lawn and inviting swimming pool.

www.villasanbali.com

FRONT UP

Sunny San

GUESTS at Villa San are spoiled for choice when it comes to ways to relax, reflecting the owners' artistic and spiritual leanings.

The spacious grounds offer freedom and flexibility for both families and groups of friends, with hammocks and sun loungers arranged around the 25 x five-metre pool, and a pool pavilion seating up to 15 people. Inside, as well as the living and dining spaces, there are two well-equipped entertainment rooms - one is part of the two-bedroom master suite; the other adjacent to the informal dining room, a gym and a children's playroom. The villa showcases some exquisite art and handicrafts from China, Ghana and Indonesia. Villa San comprises six large bedrooms, three doubles and three twins. French doors from all the bedroom pavilions look out over tranquil gardens, only steps away from the long sloping lawn and inviting swimming pool.

www.villasanbali.com